You indicated on your 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) that you have special conditions regarding your family situation, and therefore you did not provide parental information. Under the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA), effective August 14, 2008, dependent students may be eligible to receive only Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans if the parents have ended financial support and refuse to file the FAFSA. Student AND parent must complete applicable Sections.

*If you did not provide parental information on the FAFSA due to an abusive family environment, neglect, or abandonment by your parent, please contact the Financial Aid Office to speak to a counselor regarding a potential Dependency Override.

If your parents refuse to file the FAFSA, please have parent complete the Parent sections below. If your parents are unwilling to complete the parent section below, please provide third party (teacher, counselor, clergy member, court, etc.) documentation describing the student's relationship with the parent.

Parent Section: By signing this form, I certify that all the statements below are true:

- I do not provide financial support to my son/daughter named above, (includes payment of educational costs) and:
 - ▶ Cash and non-cash support to the student such as room and board, car/hospitalization/renter' insurance.
- I have stopped providing financial support to my son/daughter.
- I will not provide financial support in the future.
- I did not claim my son/daughter as an exemption on my 2021 or 2022 federal income tax return and will not claim him/her for 2023.
- My son/daughter no longer resides in my household.
- I refuse to complete the parental section of the FAFSA.
- I understand I will not be eligible to apply for a Parent PLUS loan on the student's behalf.
